

Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra Family Series

Entertaining, Educating, Enriching

A great season is in store as we are proud to present the 2011-12 Family Series. Adults and children experience the symphony together, some for the very first time, building appreciation for the music and creating lasting memories. Join us, wont you, for 6 Sunday afternoon programs we're sure you'll enjoy!

Special Bonus – New this Season - Family Sundays

New this year, the BPO is proud to announce unique collaborations with the Albright-Knox Art Gallery and Theatre of Youth on Family Sundays.

Interactive theatre workshops from TOY and hands-on activities from AKAG are added to the wildly popular Instrument ZOO in the Mary Seaton Room. It all starts 45 minutes before concert time, so get there early and enjoy the festivities. More info at bpo.org/family.

■ GHOSTS, GOBLINS AND GHOULS!

Sun, Oct 30, 2:30PM TOY

Matthew Kraemer, conductor

Kids will love parading across the Kleinhans stage in their Halloween costumes. Don't miss our spooky and scary musical selections!

■ SYMPHONY EXPRESS

Sun, Feb 19, 2:30PM AKAG

Matthew Kraemer, conductor

All aboard the BPO Symphony Express! Take a ride on Pacific 231 and be prepared for surprises that include the timeless children's story The Little Engine That Could and other train-inspired music.

■ A VISIT WITH ST. NICK

Sun, Dec 18, 2:30PM

Paul Ferington, conductor

Our annual children's holiday tradition continues with a festive program of holiday classics including Rob Kapilow's The Polar Express. Visit with Santa Claus in the Mary Seaton Room post-concert.

■ A FAMILY FOR BABY GRAND

Sun, Mar 25, 2:30PM ZOO

Matthew Kraemer, conductor

Learn the musical instruments while following Baby Grand on her journey to join the orchestra.

■ ONCE UPON A TIME

Sun, Jan 29, 2:30PM AKAG

Matthew Kraemer, conductor

A program highlighting musical selections from Mother Goose and fairy tale favorites.

■ ORCHESTRA GAMES

Sun, May 6, 2:30PM TOY AKAG

Matthew Kraemer, conductor

Inspired by the upcoming 2012 Summer Olympic Games in London, the BPO celebrates with John Williams' Olympic Fanfare and Theme.

